Customer is responsible for its own implementation of the SaaS Services within its Digital Properties (including the technical implementation of Branch’s software-development-kit) and any engagements with third-party vendors or integration partners used by Customer in conjunction with the SaaS Services. The SaaS Services will not be deployed by Customer in countries or to entities and/or persons in violation of Section 12.8 or in a country which requires data to be held in a locale other than the United States.

Any failure by any Authorized Users to comply with the Agreement will be deemed to be a breach by Customer, and Branch will not be liable for any damages incurred by Customer, or any third party, resulting from such breach. If there is any compromise in the security of an Authorized User’s account, or if unauthorized use is suspected or has occurred, Customer must immediately take all necessary steps, including providing notice to Branch, to effectuate the suspension or termination of the affected account.

3.3 Use Restrictions. Customer agrees to use the SaaS Services exclusively for authorized purposes, consistent with all applicable laws and regulations, the Documentation, and applicable Branch policies, including the terms of the Branch Acceptable Use Policy, the latest version of which is available at <https://legal.branch.io/saas/acceptable-use-policy/>. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement, use of the SaaS Services in violation of the foregoing restrictions by Customer that, in Branch's judgment, threatens the integrity, performance, availability, or security of the SaaS Services may result in Branch's immediate suspension of, or limitation in Customer's access to, the SaaS Services.

3.4 Updates and Support. Customer access is limited to the version of the SaaS Services in Branch's production environment. Branch regularly updates the SaaS Services and reserves the right to discontinue, add and/or substitute functionally equivalent features in the event of product unavailability, end-of-life, or changes to software requirements. know basis to its subcontractors who are providing all or part of the Services. Branch may use Customer's Confidential Information solely as provided for under this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the receiving party may disclose Confidential Information of the disclosing party (i) to the extent necessary to comply with any law, rule, regulation or ruling applicable to it, and (ii) as required to respond to any summons or subpoena or in connection with any litigation, arbitration, or other legal proceeding. Upon the request of the disclosing party, the receiving party will return or destroy all Confidential Information of the disclosing party that is in its possession. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the receiving party may retain information for regulatory purposes or in back-up files, provided that the receiving party's confidentiality obligations hereunder will continue to apply so long as such information is so retained.

7. THIRD-PARTY CONTENT & INTEGRATIONS

7.1 Third-Party Content. Customer may enable the SaaS Services to display, or contain links to, third-party products, services, and websites. Any Third-Party Content are those of the respective authors or producers and not of Branch or its Affiliates of their respective shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, or representatives. Branch represents and warrants that the SaaS Services, as updated by Branch, and used in accordance with the Documentation, will perform substantially in accordance with the Documentation under normal use and circumstances and that the Professional Services will be performed in a manner consistent with general industry standards. Branch is not responsible for any claimed breach of any warranty set forth in this Section caused by: (i) modifications made to the SaaS Services by anyone other than Branch; (ii) the combination, operation or use of the Services with any items not provided by Branch; (iii) Branch’s adherence to Customer’s specifications or instructions; or (iv) Customer deviating from the operating procedures described in the Documentation. For any breach of a warranty above, Customer’s exclusive remedies are those described in Section 9.2(b).

8.2 Customer Warranties. The Customer represents and warrants that: (i) the Customer Digital Properties and Customer Materials do not infringe the intellectual property rights or privacy rights of any third party; (ii) it will obtain consent from its end users with regard to cookies and/or targeting and online behavioral advertising to the extent required by applicable law; and (iii) it has all permissions, authority, licenses, and consents required to enable the SaaS Services to collect, process, and store Customer Data for the purpose of providing the SaaS Services in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and as required by applicable law.

8.3 DISCLAIMER. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED IN THE AGREEMENT, THE SERVICES, AND THE DOCUMENTATION ARE PROVIDED "AS IS," WITHOUT REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY OF ANY KIND. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, BRANCH EXPLICITLY DISCLAIMS ANY WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, QUIET ENJOYMENT OR NON-INFRINGEMENT, AND ANY WARRANTIES ARISING OUT OF COURSE OF DEALING, COURSE OF PERFORMANCE, OR USAGE OF TRADE. THE LIMITATIONS SET FORTH ABOVE APPLY TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

9. INDEMNITY

9.1 Customer Indemnity. Customer will defend Branch, its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers, agents, employees, representatives, and assigns ("Branch Indemnified Parties") against any claim, demand, suit or action against Branch brought by a third party (a) arising from Customer's use of the Services in an unlawful manner or in violation of this Agreement, (b) alleging that any of Customer's Digital Properties developed or provided by Customer, or the combination of Customer's Digital Properties used with the Services, infringes, or misappropriates such third party's intellectual property rights or (c) Customer's instructions to share Shared Data with a Partner (each a "Claim Against Branch"). Customer will indemnify Branch Indemnified Parties from any costs, damages, and expenses finally awarded against Branch Indemnified Parties as a result of, or for any amounts paid by Branch Indemnified Parties under a settlement approved by Customer in writing of, a Claim Against Branch. The above defense and indemnification obligations do not apply if a Claim Against Branch arises from Branch's breach of this Agreement.

9.2 Branch Indemnity.

(a) Branch will defend Customer, its Affiliates, and their officers, agents, employees, representatives, and assigns ("Customer Indemnified Parties") against any claim, demand, suit or action against Customer brought by a third party alleging that any of the Services infringe any copyright rights or misappropriate the trade secret rights of any third party (a "Claim Against Customer"), and will indemnify Customer Indemnified Parties from any costs, damages, and expenses finally awarded against Customer Indemnified Parties as a result of, or for any amounts paid by Customer Indemnified Parties under a settlement approved by Branch in writing of, a Claim Against Customer.

(b) The defense and indemnification obligations in Section 9.2(a) do not apply to the extent a Claim Against Customer arises from Customer's breach of the Agreement, or usage of the Services in violation of the Documentation or in connection with any acts or omissions by Permitted Partners. Upon the occurrence of a claim, suit or action for which indemnity is or may be due pursuant to Section 9.2(a), or in the event that Branch believes that such a claim, suit or action is likely, Branch may, at its option provide one or more of the following remedies to Customer, which will be Customer's exclusive remedy for any related claims it may have against Branch, whether for breach of warranty, breach of contract or otherwise: (i) appropriately modify the Services so that they become non-infringing, or substitute functionally equivalent services; (ii) obtain a license to the applicable third-party intellectual property rights; or (iii) terminate this Agreement on written notice to Customer. Customer agrees that Branch's performance of its obligations under this Section 9.2(b) constitute Customer's exclusive remedy, and Branch's sole obligation, with respect to a third-party infringement claim. Branch's obligations set forth within Section 9.2(a) do not apply to the extent a Claim Against Customer arises: (A) out of, and would not have otherwise occurred absent of, Customer's Digital Properties or Customer's use of the Services in violation of this Agreement or the Documentation; (B) from, and would not have otherwise occurred absent the, use or combination of the Services or any part thereof with hardware, software, data, information, design, specification, instruction, intellectual property, processes or other material not provided by Branch, or any material provided from a third party portal or other external source that is accessible to Customer within the Services ("External Outputs"), if the Services or use thereof would not infringe without such combination, (C) under an Order Form for which there is no charge, (D) based on the combination of any External Outputs with any products or services not provided by Branch, or (E) from the Third-Party Content.

9.3 Indemnification Procedure. The obligations of either Party to provide indemnification under this Agreement will be conditioned contingent upon (a) the indemnified party promptly giving the indemnifying party written notice of any claim for which indemnification is sought (provided that the indemnified party's failure to notify the indemnifying party will not diminish the indemnifying party's obligations under this Section, except to the extent that the indemnifying party is materially prejudiced as a result of such failure); (b) the indemnifying party having sole control of the defense and settlement of any and all claims for which indemnification is sought provided that no settlement may be entered into without the consent of the indemnified party if either such settlement would require any action on the part of the indemnified party, including payment of fees or admission of guilt, other than to cease using any allegedly infringing or illegal content or services; and (c) the indemnified party giving the indemnifying party all reasonably requested assistance at the indemnifying party's expense. Subject to the foregoing, an indemnified party will have the option to participate in any matter or litigation through counsel of its own selection solely at its own expense.

10. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

10.1 BRANCH AND ITS SUPPLIERS AND LICENSORS WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, CONSEQUENTIAL, OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO, DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF PROFITS, LOSS OF REVENUE, GOODWILL, USE, LOSS OF DATA OR DATA THAT IS INCOMPLETE, MISSING, OR INCORRECT, OR OTHER INTANGIBLE LOSSES (EVEN IF BRANCH HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES), RESULTING FROM THIS AGREEMENT.

10.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, any Order Form, or any other agreement that incorporates this Agreement by reference, Branch's total liability to Customer and responsibility for any and all damages, claims, obligations, losses or expenses arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or the Services, including but not limited to, any amounts paid by Branch for the defense or settlement of any indemnified claims, will not exceed the Fees paid by Customer for the twelve (12) month period preceding the action or event giving rise to the Customer's claim. The limitations of liability set forth in this Section 10.2 will not apply to any amounts due to Branch by Customer for the Services, and will not limit or exclude the liability or remedy of either party to the extent prohibited by applicable law.

11. TERM AND TERMINATION

11.1 Term. This Agreement commences on the effective date of the first Order Form and continues until such time that there is no active Order Form for sixty (60) days, unless terminated earlier as provided hereunder.

11.2 Services Term. The term of each Subscription shall be as specified in the applicable Order Form. Except as is otherwise specified in an Order Form, Subscriptions will automatically renew for additional one-year terms, unless either party gives the other written notice (if Customer provides notice to Branch, by emailing such notice to billing@branch.io) at least 30 days before the end of the relevant subscription term. Except as expressly provided in the applicable Order Form, renewal of subscriptions will be at Branch's applicable list price in effect at the time of the applicable renewal.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, any renewal in which subscription volume or subscription length for any Services has changed from the prior term may result in re-pricing at renewal without regard to the prior term's per-unit pricing.

11.3 Suspension. Branch will be entitled to suspend any or all Services upon ten (10) days written notice to Customer in the event Customer is in breach of this Agreement. However, Branch may suspend Customer's access and use of the Services immediately, with notice to Customer following promptly thereafter, if, and so long as, in Branch's sole judgment, there is a security or legal risk created by Customer that may interfere with the proper continued provision of the Services or the operation of Branch's network or systems.

11.4 Termination. A party may terminate this Agreement for cause (i) upon 5 days written notice to the other party of a material breach if such breach remains uncured within 30 days after written notice of such material breach to the non-breaching party, or (ii) if the other party becomes the subject of a petition in bankruptcy or any other proceeding relating to insolvency, receivership, liquidation or assignment for the benefit of creditors. Where a party has rights to terminate under this Section, that party may at its discretion either terminate the entire Agreement or the applicable Order Form. In such cases, Order Forms that are not terminated will continue in full force and effect under the terms of this Agreement. Where Customer has not agreed to be bound for a defined Term in any applicable Order Form, Customer may terminate the Services by providing written notice to Branch via the "Submit a Ticket" function at <http://help.branch.io/> or by electing to "Cancel my Subscription" in Customer's dashboard. Such termination will be effective and Customer's access to the Services will be removed as of the first day of the calendar month following the month when your termination notice is received by Branch.

11.5 Effect of Termination. Upon termination of this Agreement, any outstanding balance through the date of termination and other unpaid payment obligations will be immediately due and payable in full. All provisions that by their express terms or nature should survive or contemplates performance or observance subsequent to termination or expiration of this Agreement (including any Order Form) or are necessary for the interpretation of any of the foregoing, shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement and continue in full force and effect, including 6.1 (Proprietary Rights), 6.2 (License), 6.5 (Confidential Information), 8 (Warranties), 10 (Limitation of Liability), Sections 11.5 (Effect of Termination), and 12 (Miscellaneous) will survive termination of this Agreement. Branch has no obligation to retain Customer Data beyond ninety (90) days after the expiration or termination of Services.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

12.1 Governing Law. This Agreement and all matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to its conflict of law provisions. The Parties expressly disclaim and exclude the application of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods. Client consents that any legal action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be brought exclusively in the state or federal courts located in Travis County, Texas.

All goodwill developed from such use shall be solely for Customer's benefit.

12.3 No Waiver; Severability. Branch's failure to enforce any right or provision in this Agreement will not constitute a waiver of such right or provision unless acknowledged and agreed to by Branch in writing. If any provision of this Agreement is found to be unenforceable or invalid, that provision will be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary so that this Agreement will otherwise remain in full force and effect and enforceable.

12.4 Assignment. Except as expressly stated in this Section, neither party may assign its rights or obligations under this Agreement without obtaining the other party's prior written consent, provided however that either party may assign, transfer or novate its rights and obligations to an Affiliate or a successor in connection with a merger, acquisition or consolidation or to the purchaser in connection with the sale of all or substantially all of its assets.
